

Harvard Model Congress

Boston 2024

Dear Delegates,

Welcome to Harvard Model Congress Boston 2024 and welcome to the World Bank! We're very excited to welcome you at our conference this year, and hope you are eager to learn about international economic cooperation.

To fill you in on a little bit about your chairs:

Jay is a senior from Newton, MA, studying Economics with a secondary in Astrophysics. This year, he lives in Quincy House (the best dorm on campus), is a member of the Debating Union, runs an opioid overdose policy organization, and does behavioral and development economics research. He is so, so excited to get to know you all, and he looks forward to having a great conference!

Andrew is a junior from Aspen CO. He is concentrating in CS and economics. His favorite dorm at Harvard (and also the best) is Pfoho. At Harvard, he is involved with the curling club and cycling clubs. In his free time, he loves to look at art and watch ballet. He is looking forward to meeting everyone!

Yasmin is a first-year in Thayer Hall interested in studying Government and Ethnicity, Migration, Rights. She is from Natick, Massachusetts and also a Brazilian dual-citizen. She is passionate about politics and advocacy work. Outside of HMC, she is involved in the Harvard Undergraduate Latina Empowerment and Development Conference, Harvard Undergraduate Legal Committee, and works at the Tozzer library.

We are all beyond excited to meet you all during HMC 2024!

Best wishes,
Jay, Andrew, and Yasmin!
